

Maria Teresa Kumar

Maria Teresa Kumar is the founding president and CEO of Voto Latino, which is responsible for registering and influencing millions of Latino voters through viral, celebrity-driven campaigns. Other important Voto Latino issues include immigration and citizenship, health care and social justice.

An Emmy-nominated MSNBC contributor and former host of “Changing America,” Kumar is a World Economic Forum Young Global Leader who serves on the national boards of Planned Parenthood, Emily’s List, the Latino Leaders Network and is a frequent guest analyst on NPR and PBS.

Hispanic Business named her among the 100 most influential Latinos in America; Hispanic Executive named her among the 10 most influential Latinos in the country. Kumar is a graduate of Harvard’s Kennedy School and the University of California at Davis.

CELEBRATE
HISPANIC
HERITAGE
SEPT. 15–OCT. 15

NYSUT is proud to partner with the Hispanic community to ensure a quality education and future for all students. For more on the important contributions of Hispanic Americans, visit www.nysut.org/publications.

nysut
A Union of Professionals

To download a printable copy of the NYSUT 2019 Hispanic Heritage poster, or to order copies, visit www.nysut.org/publications.